The New Brunswick Congregation of the Oratory of St. Philip Neri

This year the New Brunswick Congregation of the Oratory is concluding its 10th anniversary of its foundation as a pontifical society of apostolic life.

The New Brunswick Oratory is a Roman Catholic religious community of men, priests and brothers, who embrace the way of St. Philip Neri, founder of the Congregation of the Oratory. It is a life rooted in prayer and service that seeks to reach out to the needs of God’s people. There is also a vibrant community of laity, called the Secular Oratory, in association with the Congregation. All are welcome to attend our times of prayers, formation and fellowship.

Members of the Congregation serve the Catholic campus ministry apostolate at Rutgers University and the parish of St. Peters the Apostle Church, both in New Brunswick.

Each Oratorian Congregation is founded as an independent, autonomous community and, therefore, must be self-sufficient. We are responsible for the education and formation of our own members.

The New Brunswick Oratory offers retreats, educational talks, spiritual formation and opportunities for prayer to support the mission and faith of the laity. Your participation in our annual Oratory Golf Outing will help to support our community’s life and ministry, assisting us to achieve our potential in the service of the gospel.

May God’s peace and blessings be with you!
